The 3rd Annual Sandra Goldsmith Social Justice Shabbaton

SEEING THE FACE OF THE OTHER:

Building unity among Jews, Muslims,
and targeted communities

Saturday, November 18

followed by special Kiddush luncheon and conversation with the Muslim community (until 2:00)

12:00 - 12:30 pm - Welcome during Services and Kiddush luncheon

12:30 - 2:00 pm - Community conversation, "Our Advocacy, Our Lives," with Mehlaqa Samdani and Rabbi Justin David

Sunday, November 19 Panel and Discussion at CBI Café:

9:30 - 11:45 am - The "Other" is "Us"

A conversation with:

- Mehlaqa Samdani - Executive Director of Critical Connections
- Alicia Fleming - Organizer of Holyoke March for Racial Justice
- Diana Sierra - Organizer, Pioneer Valley Workers Center
- Sara Weinberger - CBI Tikkun Olam Member, Activist

Please join us for this Shabbaton to deepen the bonds of friendship with the Muslim community and envision how we may more closely work as allies with targeted communities.

Mehlaqa Samdani is the Executive Director of Critical Connections, which brings issues of Muslim concern into multi-faith dialogue.

She is a fellow at the Karuna Center for Peacebuilding and teaches peacebuilding and dialogue at the School For International Training.

Sponsored by the CBI Tikkun Olam Committee, dedicated to keeping social justice at the center of our community, where it belongs.
