

Jewish Women's Voices of Power and Resistance: New Generations, New Questions

A Tikkun Study and Community Gathering for

Shavuot

with Dr. Mara Benjamin

Response by Rabbi Riqi Kosovske

How do we find and learn from women's voices in Judaism when much of the normative, textual tradition has been written by men?

Join us as Dr. Mara Benjamin shares recent scholarship that explores how Jewish women have cultivated agency and authority in Jewish tradition. Then, we will break out into smaller groups to study texts and share responses, framed by the insights of young people newly engaging with these questions.

At CBI, 253 Prospect Street, Northampton

Saturday evening,
May 19, 6:30 pm

Co-sponsored by

Shavuot Evening Schedule

6:30 – 7:00 pm: Ma'ariv, Evening Service

7:00 – 8:15 pm: Presentation, Discussion with Dr. Mara Benjamin

8:15 – 9:15 pm: Breakout sessions led by new voices

9:15 – 10:00 pm: Cheesecake

10:00 – 12:00 pm: Ongoing study sessions