

WHAT IS ANTI-SEMITISM AND WHAT CAN WE DO?

a three-part series sponsored by the CBI Tikkun Olam Committee for our synagogue community

LISTENING SESSION

Sunday, February 3

10:00-11:30 am

Would you like an opportunity to talk feelings with other CBI members about your experiences with anti-Semitism, how Jews can stand up for ourselves, or how to educate non-Jews to be our allies? Facilitators Rachel Hannah, Jonathan Kohrman, and Amy Leos-Urbel, members of Jews and Allies United to End Anti-Semitism, will provide guidelines for structured small-group sharing.

DISCUSSION

Sunday, March 10

9:45-10:45 am

Discussion at CBI Café of Anti-Semitism: Why is it Everyone's Concern? A booklet written by Cherie Brown and Amy Leos-Urbel, published by Jews and Allies United to End Anti-Semitism. Amy Leos-Urbel will facilitate. Booklets will be available for purchase at this and the previous session and in CBI office ($3, please use cash).

INTERACTIVE WORKSHOP

Sunday May 5, 10:00 am-4:00 pm

(lunch provided, pre-registration will be required)

What are the current realities of anti-Semitism -- on the Right and the Left? How are Jews and Jewish organizations affected by internalized anti-Semitism? How can we improve relations between Jews and Communities of Color? Join with CBI members for large and small group discussions of these and other pressing issues, led by Cherie Brown, executive director of the National Coalition Building Institute and founder of Jews and Allies United to End Anti-Semitism. Cherie is also adjunct faculty at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College, and a frequent contributor to Tikkun magazine. Cherie is co-author of the booklet Anti-Semitism: Why Is It Everyone's Concern?

Please note: CBI members are welcome to attend one or more of these events.
