

A Shabbat Post-Kiddush Conversation with

Rabbi Arik Ascherman, Founder and Executive Director of Torat Tzedek The Torah of Justice

Thoughts on Human Rights in Israel and the West Bank

Rabbi Arik Ascherman is the Founder of Torat Tzedek, a new Israeli human rights organization that advocates for all who live in Israel and under Israeli control, including Palestinians, African asylum seekers, Negev Bedouin, and Israelis seeking social and economic justice. As Executive Director of Rabbis for Human Rights, Rabbi Ascherman helped to grow the organization and establish its international reputation through constant advocacy, writing, and acts of civil disobedience.

Saturday, June 1, 12:30 pm (after kiddush)
in the CBI Library